

West Allis-West Milwaukee School District [1]

Submitted by Editor on Sun, 06/12/2016 - 15:02

Region:

- SE [2]

This is where the spreadsheet would go if there was one.

The information on this district page comes from a variety of publicly available information sources. We thank all who have contributed information towards the development of this page. Additional information is always appreciated. Send information to researchteam@teachinginwisconsin.com [3].

Accuracy of Information: Every attempt was made to ensure that the information on this District page was accurate at the time of publishing. If a district has made changes to employment policies, practices, compensation or benefits, we would appreciate an email letting us know of the changes so that we can update the information for the district as soon as possible. Send updated or new information to researchteam@teachinginwisconsin.com [3].

Thanks from the Teaching in Wisconsin Research Team.

Survey Highlights:

- This district has established a system for career salary advancement, but the system does not include a visible salary path so that a person will know what they will make in future years. Salary increases in this system are based on uncertain and subjective factors such that a person cannot be assured of actually receiving future increases.
- This district has a track record of occasionally pursuing the non-renewal of teachers' contracts, based on performance, with little prior warning and no chance for the teacher to improve.

What You Will Earn in Your Career in this School District

1. This district has a written system for career salary advancement that is objective, predictable, No and attainable by all teachers.

2. This district's system for career salary advancement is clear and objective, rather than based on periodic subjective judgments. No

3. This district's system of career salary advancement includes merit pay or performance pay. Yes

4. This District's system of career salary advancement includes student test scores Unknown

5. This district's system of career salary advancement is predictable. No

6. All teachers are able to attain the highest career salaries in the district. No

7. This district's system of career salary advancement is based on experience and educational level attained No

1. Before deciding to non-renew or terminate a teacher, this district always gives significant advance notice of any deficiencies and the opportunity and support to improve their performance:

No

2. This district has a seniority based layoff procedure, rather than unpredictable subjective judgment.:

Unknown

3. This district has recall rights for teachers to return to their jobs after being laid off.:

Unknown

4. This district has "just cause" language for teacher discipline, non-renewal, and termination:

No

5. This district allows teachers to appeal discipline, non-renewal, and termination decisions to an impartial arbitrator or judge.:

No

1. This district provides time and resources on scheduled in-service days to help teachers meet state and district educator accountability requirements, including SLO's and PPG's.:

Yes

2. This district has reduced or eliminated teacher preparation time.:

Yes

3. This district has increased the length of the teacher work day without additional compensation.:

No

4. This district has increased the number of required work days in the contracted year without additional compensation.:

No

5. This district has made significant changes to health insurance benefits that have negatively impacted teachers by requiring either higher co-pays and premiums and/or reductions in scope and level of coverage.:

Yes

6. This district has reduced or eliminated teacher retirement benefits promised to teachers as an incentive for remaining in this district for their career.:

Yes

7. This district has reduced or eliminated sick leave benefits and/or accumulated sick leave.:

No

Additional Information Regarding This School District:

Other than the Consumer Price Index (CPI), incentive pay is the deciding factor in salary increases. As applied in the West Allis-West Milwaukee school district, the criteria and amount of incentive pay awarded to teachers is very subjective. The CPI number for the West Allis-West Milwaukee school district is always lower than the WERC number and metro area average; incentive pay is the reason. Incentive pay requires teachers to work beyond normal contract requirements and normal school hours. In the West Allis-West Milwaukee school district, to earn incentive pay, teachers are required to work beyond regular school hours just to maintain the value of their current salaries.

Starting Salary:

$42,735

Salary Comparison

Career Maximum Salary	Years to Reach Maximum Salary	Pre Act 10 Career Maximum Salary
unknown	unknown	$75,500

Number of PPG's per Year:

unknown

Length of Summative Evaluation Cycle:

unknown

Number of SLO's per Year:

unknown

Source URL: <https://www.teachinginwisconsin.com/district/west-allis-west-milwaukee-school-district-0>

Links

[1] <https://www.teachinginwisconsin.com/district/west-allis-west-milwaukee-school-district-0>

[2] <https://www.teachinginwisconsin.com/taxonomy/term/2>

[3] <mailto:researchteam@teachinginwisconsin.com>